

FISCAL NOTE

TO: Chief Clerk of the Senate
Chief Clerk of the House

FROM: James A. Davenport, Executive Director

DATE: March 1, 1995

SUBJECT: HB 1383 - SB 1617

This bill, if enacted, will provide that victims of crimes against persons will have the right to restitution ordered as a condition of parole and probation. Failure to make restitution would result in swift revocation of parole or probation.

The fiscal impact from enactment of this bill is estimated to be not significant. Current law provides for revocation of parole and probation if a defendant willfully refuses to make restitution or fails to make sufficient bona fide efforts legally to acquire resources to pay restitution.

This is to duly certify that the information contained herein is true and correct to the best of my knowledge.

A handwritten signature in black ink, reading "James A. Davenport". The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first letters of the first and last names being capitalized and prominent.

James A. Davenport, Executive Director
